CASES ON EVIDENCE IN AUSTRALIA

by

ERIC J. EDWARDS
LL.B. (W.A.), S.J.D.(Northwestern)

SECOND EDITION

THE LAW OF EVIDENCE IS CONCERNED WITH THE PRESENTING AND PROOF OF FACTS TO A COURT.

The facts to be proved in any particular case depend initially on the substantive law, the issues being determined in a civil matter by the pleadings and in a criminal matter by the charge and the accused's plea.

IT IS WITH THE PROOF OF THESE FACTS THAT THE LAW OF EVIDENCE DEALS.

Primarily written for students, this work will also be of use to practising lawyers, since the author has included extracts from most of the leading cases on the subject.

It is now five years since the first edition of the case book was published, and the main purpose of this second edition is to bring the book up to date by including extracts from leading cases reported to mid 1973.
