

Farewell to Leila Wong

For the past eleven years, Leila Wong has been the single unchanging factor in the production of the Sydney Law Review. Faculty and student editors have changed, and so have formats and concepts of the Review. Leila's unfailing dedication, hard work and efficiency have provided a necessary backbone in the operation of the Review. In her dealings with authors, referees, editors, publishers, sponsors and students, she has always displayed cheerful common sense and good humour. Now that she is retiring from the Review and the University of Sydney Law School, we pay tribute to her as a longstanding, excellent coordinator. We wish her well at this new stage of her life, and we thank her most sincerely for all she has done for the Sydney Law Review.
