be called "The Parliament of South Australia," and shall be severally constituted in the manner hereinafter prescribed, and such Legislative Council and House of Assembly shall have and exercise all the powers and functions of the existing Legislative Council: Provided that all Bills for appropriating any part of the Revenue of the said Province, or for imposing, altering, or repealing any rate tax, duty, or impost, shall originate in the House of Assembly.

2. It shall be lawful for the Governor to fix such places and times for holding the first and every other Session of the said Parliament as he may think fit, and from time to time to change or vary the same as he may judge advisable and most consistent with general convenience and the public welfare, giving sufficient notice thereof; and also to prorogue the said Parliament from time to time, and to dissolve the said House of Assembly by Proclamation or otherwise whenever he shall deem it expedient: Provided that nothing herein contained shall authorize the Governor to dissolve the said Legislative Council.

3. There shall be a Session of the said Parliament once at least in every year; so that a period of twelve calendar months shall not intervene between the last sitting of the Parliament in one Session and the first sitting of the Parliament in the next Session; and every House of Assembly hereafter to be summoned and chosen, shall continue for three years from the day on which such House of Assembly shall first meet for the dispatch of business, and no longer, subject nevertheless to be sooner prorogued or dissolved by the Governor.

4. The said Parliament shall be called together for the first time at some period not later than six calendar months after the Proclamation of this Act by the Governor.

5. The Legislative Council shall for the present consist of eighteen elected Members, who shall be elected by the inhabitants of the said Province, legally qualified to vote; and no person shall be capable of being elected a Member, who shall not be of the full age of thirty years and a natural-born or naturalized subject of Her Majesty, or legally made a denizen of the said Province, and who shall not have resided within the said Province for the full period of three years.

6. Every man of the age of twenty-one years, being a natural born or naturalized subject of Her Majesty, or legally made a denizen of the said Province, and having a freehold estate in possession, either legal or equitable, situate within the said Province, of the clear value of Fifty Pounds sterling money above all charges and incumbrances affecting the same, or having a leasehold estate in possession, situate within the said Province, of the clear annual value of Twenty Pounds, the lease thereof having been registered in the general Registry Office, for the registration of deeds, and having three years inability to become Members of the said Parliament, or to command the support of a majority of the Members thereof, or upon other grounds without any misconduct or incapacity on the part of such officer, and it is just to compensate the present holders of such offices for the actual loss of their offices, in case the same should happen, by the causes aforesaid, or any of them—Be it enacted, That the sums set opposite the names of the persons mentioned in Schedule B to this Act annexed, who at present respectively hold the offices therein mentioned, shall be payable annually, by way of retiring allowance, to such persons respectively during their respective lives, upon their respective retirement or removal from office, upon the grounds aforesaid, or any of them, after this Act shall come into operation; and all such sums as aforesaid shall be payable and paid to such persons out of the General Revenue; and the Treasurer for the time being is hereby authorized and required to make such payments accordingly, on warrants under the hand of the Governor: Provided that, if after any such annual retiring allowance as aforesaid shall have become payable, the person entitled thereto shall accept any new appointment under the Crown, then such retiring allowance shall merge or be reduced pro tanto during the tenure of such appointment, according as the salary or emolument of such new appointment is or are of greater or less amount than such retiring allowance of such person.

Does this mean a majority of the House? It does not. It means a majority of the House as it is defined in the Bill Act. It is not a majority of the House as it is defined in the Bill Act.

Does the word "Removal" apply except in the case of incapacity? It does not. It applies to the removal of an officer from office, and not to the removal of an officer from office.

40. It shall not be lawful for either House of the said Parliament to pass any vote, resolution, or bill, for the appropriation of any part of the Revenue, or of any tax, rate, duty, or impost, for any purpose which shall not have been first recommended by the Governor to the said House of Assembly during the Session in which such vote, resolution, or bill shall be passed.

All money votes to be recommended by the Governor.
According to the Bill Act, a bill for the purpose of appropriating any part of the Revenue, or of any tax, rate, duty, or impost, for any purpose, shall not be passed unless it has been first recommended by the Governor to the House of Assembly during the Session in which it shall be passed.
